IRAQ-KUWAIT: SITUATION REPORT #562

Political Developments

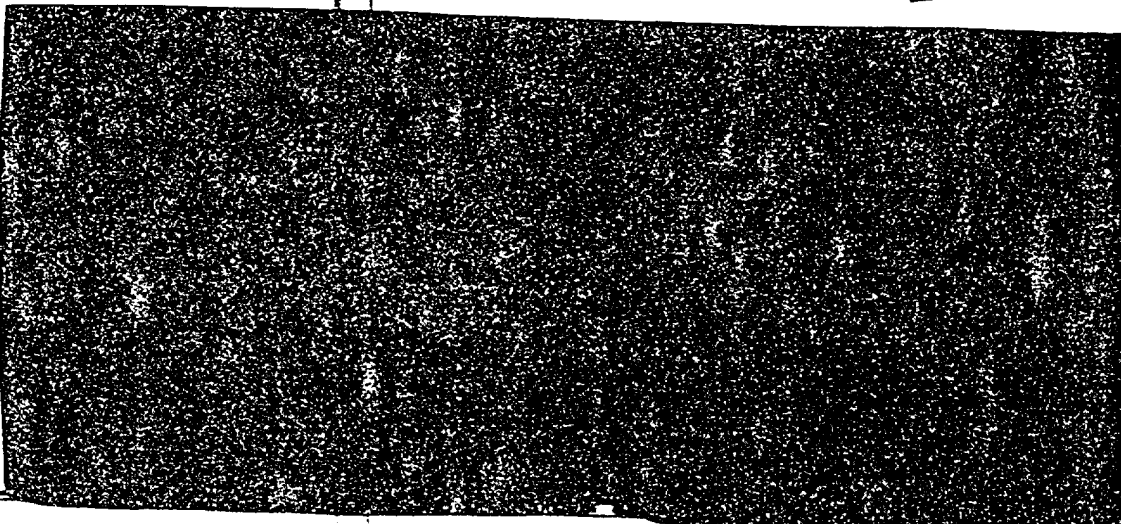

Potential Political Fallout From Scud Attack

The Scud that landed on the northern outskirts of Riyadh yesterday impacted inside a large religious university complex, Imam Mohammed Ibn Saud University, [REDACTED]. The subsequent explosion caused major damage to the university's gymnasium/sports complex. The university was largely vacant due to continued school closings, and only light casualties were suffered. [REDACTED]

Comment: Damage to the religious university--to date, the most extensive observed at a Saudi facility, [REDACTED]--will outrage large segments of the devout Saudi population. [REDACTED]

Arab Foreign Ministers to Meet in Cairo

Foreign ministers from nine Arab countries will meet in Cairo on 15 February to discuss the Gulf crisis and post-war security arrangements, according to Egyptian press. The foreign ministers of Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Syria, Qatar, Kuwait, Oman, Bahrain, Morocco, and Egypt are expected to attend. [REDACTED]
